DID YOU KNOW?

ANCIENT ELEGANCE

Adorning the entrance and Blüthner Hall are columns crafted from the rare “Rosa Portogallo” marble, sourced from the small town of Borba in Portugal. These pillars, aged between 300 and 400 million years, stand as timeless symbols of beauty and craftsmanship.

ARTISTRY PRESERVED

Our in-house furniture master, Andrea Fortuna, meticulously maintains our furniture’s elegance and authenticity. Handcrafted by Francesco Molon’s atelier, each piece is a unique work of art requiring Andrea’s expert touch for polishing and retouching.

MELODIC LEGACY

The Ludwig XIV Piano in Blüthner Hall, crafted with ivory wood and 24K gold leaf by the renowned Blüthner House in Leipzig, Germany, embodies heritage and artistry. Julius Blüthner’s grandson visited during its creation, honoring its legacy. A painting of Julius Blüthner now decorates the space, honoring his contribution.
